My husband and I would like to thank you for the beautiful marriage retreat we were so grateful to attend. Mere words cannot express enough the gratefulness and appreciation we both feel for being chosen to participate in such a program as “I Do Again”. It is a wonderful program and one that I hope continues in our diocese. It makes me proud that our Bishop endorses and himself participates in such an enriching and much-needed program. Your presence at the mass and your encouraging words spoke volumes to all the couples present. It gave us new hope and strength in commitment to our marriage vows to love, honor and always be there for our spouse. Your staff, Jerome and Sandra, as well as her husband Leonard went above and beyond to make us feel important and make sure we had everything we needed. They, as well as Anthony and Tami Landry, were excellent as they represented you, our diocese and our faith in such a loving and kind manner as they facilitated the entire weekend. Thank you again for your support, generosity and willingness to bring such a program to our diocese. Peace and Blessings to you and your staff.

My husband and I want to thank you for the Marriage Retreat that we attended in September 2015. Everyone and everything was very nice. It far exceeded our expectations.

We absolutely LOVED the marriage retreat and highly recommend it's attendance by young and older married couples alike. We learned valuable couples strategies and glimpses into each other's mentality that we never would have learned otherwise. The presenters and the whole environment was perfect for the event. Thank you for the opportunity to have attended such an event.
